By order of the board of directors.

CHARLES D. OLNEY, Secretary.

Office, room 265 Russ building, San Francisco, California. J10 Jy11-16

"Mr. Abe Lincoln,

"Tonopah Station:

"I duly received the flag raising day program and have read with interest the itinerary of festivities on that occasion. I am sure the ceremonies must have been very solemn and impressive—ceremonies always are—and that your esteemed namesake of civil war fame could not have arranged a more patriotic celebration. The Goldfield contingent regrets not having been notified of it in time, for I am sure we would have come over en masse by special train with the 'Mizpah' and a coterie of reporters and motion picture cameramen—also a flat car to use as a float for Mr. Lambert, the Goddess of Liberty which enlightens the world—not that his feet would take up too much room for an ordinary float or anything. My! aren't we having warm weather. I am certain Mr. Lambert must have looked too darling for anything as Goddess, and can imagine how hard he must have fought to keep all those horrid women from kissing him. I told the Big Boss (W. D. F.) about your plans for flag raising day and he thought it a great joke. I don't see any joke about such a grand affair. My contribution to this gala occasion would have been a bottle of champagne to break upon the flagpole, or still better several bottles, but I am inclined to think it would never have been wasted upon the flagpole, especially as I note you had a schooner contest with fireworks, which makes a very delectable combination. All that was needed to complete the spectacle was a grand preparedness parade, with a few burros, small boys and several dogs bringing up the rear, the hose cart and the water wagon in the procession—and oh, yes, why didn't you give a sham battle? The Tonopah station force against a group of Mexican section men? You could have gone against them in a punitive expedition, as it were, armed with a few cuspidors. You would not even have damaged their complexions. The patriotism exhibited by the Tonopah T. & G. boys is very commendable, and goes to show that the minute the bugle sounds a call to arms and the war eagle screams, the brave Tonopah station force will be right in the front row of the battle line of gallant volunteers. And some day when that great little paper, the Tonopah Bonanza, comes out with full fledged headlines setting forth the valiant deed of heroism performed by Our Boys, I shall sigh and murmur, 'Ah, I knew them once, back on the T. & G.'"
